

It Starts with Us
Wednesday 2nd October 2019

Time	Pritchard Jones Hall, Main Arts, Bangor Campus
8:30	Registration
09.00	Welcome
09.15	Custody Nursing Gethin Jones, Adult Nursing Lecturer
10.00	My journey Joanne Bosanquet MBE, Foundation of Nursing Studies Chief Executive
10.45	Break
11.15	Year of the Nurse 2020 Gillian Knight, Nursing Officer for the Office of the Welsh Chief Nursing Officer
12.00	Lunch and stalls
13.00	Prison nursing and substance abuse Stacey Wood, Team Leader Mental Health and Learning Disability, HMP Berwyn
13.45	Paediatric oncology Elen Moseley, Specialist Outreach Children's Nursing
14.30	Break
15.00	LGBTQ health Billy Nichols, Chair of Celtic Pride, and Maggi Chong-Kwan, Gender Identity Specialist Nurse
15.45	Closing address

The role of the nurse is changing and expanding. It is more than the ability to perform clinical tasks, but to care for patients on a biopsychosocial level. This holistic, patient centred care starts with us, the nursing students. This conference is designed to celebrate and showcase the unique, versatile career that is nursing.

Location: Pritchard Jones Hall, Main Arts, Bangor Campus

Book your place here:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/o/amy-hughes-26226373455>

Get in Touch
Phone: 07734253708
Email: hbu50@bangor.ac.uk
Twitter: @amybabs87