

Cumberland Lodge Scholarships

Cumberland Lodge

exchanging views, inspiring minds

The Cumberland Lodge Scholarship is a two year programme for doctoral students studying at universities in the UK, designed to fit around their studies.

The scholarship offers a unique opportunity for students from any discipline to develop skills in communication, public engagement and interdisciplinary collaboration.

Six scholarships are available each year and applications are now invited for the third group of scholars, to start in September 2016.

What the Scholarship Involves

- An annual weekend retreat
- Participating in two conferences per year
- Facilitation and public engagement roles at conferences
- Collaborating with other scholars for a presentation of the key findings of conferences
- Attending the Annual Lecture and dinner
- Writing articles and blogs following conferences
- Acting as an ambassador for Cumberland Lodge

Scholars are required to commit to six days plus two evening engagements per year, in addition to reading and preparation time.

Cumberland Lodge, in Windsor Great Park, is the home of an educational charity founded in 1947. The charity promotes cross-disciplinary discussion and ethical thinking for 'the betterment of society' through its conference programme and other events, and welcomes 3,000 students each year from a wide range of higher education institutions for study retreats.

Applicants must be able to demonstrate a commitment to working for 'the betterment of society' through their academic research and/or other activities. The charity is currently focusing its work around ethical challenges in health, policing and social cohesion, but applications are welcome from any academic discipline.

Benefits of the Scholarship

- Mentoring in intellectual leadership
- Involvement in cross disciplinary debates on important social and ethical issues.
- Training in communications and public engagement
- Networking opportunities with senior academics and people in public life
- A personal development grant of up to £300
- Free food, accommodation and travel while staying at Cumberland Lodge.

"Cumberland Lodge is a unique environment in which to develop skills in communication and cross-disciplinary engagement. I highly recommend the scholarship programme as a key opportunity for learning and development during your PhD. "

Claire Agius, University of Cambridge
Cumberland Lodge Scholar 2014 - 2016

How To Apply

The closing date for applications is 12 May 2016. Shortlisted candidates will be notified by 26 May 2016 and interviewed by Skype on 8 June 2016.

For further information and application form please visit:
www.cumberlandlodge.ac.uk/scholarships2016

For any enquiries please email
scholarships@cumberlandlodge.ac.uk

Registered Charity No.: 1108677

